The Obituary

Minister John W. Foston was born to the parentage of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Foston on August 11, 1910.

He grew up in the community of Clay, Louisiana, there he received his education.

In the year of 1927 and at age 17, he was united in holy matrimony to Ethal Mae Randolph. She preceeded him in death in 1947.

Brother Foston moved to Los Angeles, California in 1962. He was called to the ministry in 1963.

He was blessed again in 1963 when he was joined in holy matrimony to Virgie L. Scott on September 1, 1963.

Minister Foston labored in the vineyeard with Elder Waters at the Faith Tabernacle C.O.G.I.C. of Los Angeles, some months later he was licensed for the ministry by Elder Wade Pamilton, and for approximately one year Minister Foston pastored at the Power House C.O.G.I.C. located at 3220 So. Central Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

Minister Foston united his christian fellowship with the Liberty Church of God In Christ in 1979, under the pastorate of pastor and superintendent Harvey Tyler.

Minister Foston attended services as much as his health allowed. When in health he did evangelist work as well.

His demise came on Saturday, March 5, 1983 at the California Hospital.

He answered the master's call.

Minister John W. Foston we shall always love you, but God has chosen you to join him in the land of eternal peace and joy.
